Data Collection

Data that in some way identifies the user is gathered during interactions with the Summit website in the following circumstances:

- Email management and the collection of personal information
Summit will only record your email address if and only when you send us a message. It will only be used for the purpose for which you have provided it and will not be added to our mailing list without your consent. We will not use your email address for any other purpose, and will not disclose it, without your consent. Summit does not and will not sell or market your email address to any other company.
- Computer Information
It is a necessary part of visiting any web site that the user's web browser provides the machine's identity (its IP address) to the web server so that the server can communicate with your computer. The browser type and operating system are also provided in order to assist with the dialogue between the server and your computer.

Navigation and ClickStream Data

Browsing any web site generates a history of usage and logs this for Summit to evaluate and improve our website. You as an individual user will not be identified. This includes the unlikely event of a law enforcement agency inspecting the logs of the web service provider.
